Namasté,

Thank you so much for your generous donations and sharing this message with others. The underprivileged families are tremendously grateful and warmly welcomed their food provision. Thakur, his brother Krishna and friend Jeet have just finished their third round of food distribution for twenty families. Children are running behind the Tuc tuc and motorbike and are excited with the extra chocolate they brought.

Unfortunately, the number of people with corona virus are increasing rapidly. The government has extended the lockdown. Protected with gloves and masks the brothers only provide food in their local village.

The Monsoon has started. Scorching days are followed by an excessive amount of rainfall. Consequently, some families literally sleep in mud as their huts do not have any walls. In a small corner they cook on an open fire. At night one family has to move around to find shelter due to a leaking roof.

Animals and pests can easily enter their homes. It gives Thakur a feeling of desperation and daily he calls and shares his experiences. He would preferably give shelter to each of these families.

Our dream and mission is to provide tuition fee to at least one child of each of these families. This will offer hope and incentive to other family members and future generations. We can provide tuition fees, exam fees, a uniform, stationery and books for $40 per month when schools start reopening.

We are continuing with our food delivery service once every fortnight. We would like to ask you to spread this message. With $30 we can offer a food package every fortnight to one of the underprivileged families.

These families are immensely grateful for your generosity.

Investing in a child's education offers a hopeful perspective. A perspective for knowledge and a promising future. Their dreams are similar to ours.

We thank you for your wonderful and continued support.

Sarvin & Wiebren for School Rise

For $30, we can support a family with food and drinking water for at least 2 weeks. We are aiming to support 20 families. Your contribution is warmly welcomed. Each dollar will directly be spent on food for the affected families.
